9. COMMITTEE MEETINGS

9.1. Committee meetings are convened by the Chairperson of the Committee in accordance with the work plan approved at a Committee meeting (regular meetings), as well as in other cases stipulated in the Regulation (extraordinary meetings).

9.2. In case of need the Work Plan of the Committee may be worked out by the Chairperson of the Committee with due account for the approved Work Plan of the Board of Directors of the Company, proposals of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, Committee members and decisions of the Board of Directors of the Company.

9.3. Committee meetings are held in Moscow. If decided by a majority of Committee members, meetings can be held at the address of one of the Company's branches.

9.4. When convening a Committee meeting, the Chairperson of the Committee sets the date, time, place and form of the meeting, as well as the agenda and the list of persons invited to the meeting of the Committee in praesentia.

9.5. The non-members of the Committee have the right to be present at the meeting when considering any of the agenda issues upon invitation of the Chairperson of the Committee.

9.6. The agenda of a regular meeting is set by the Chairperson of the Committee in accordance with the approved Work Plan of the Committee, decisions of the Board of Directors of the Company and proposals of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.

Committee members have the right to make proposals on the setting of the agenda of a regular meeting of the Committee.

The Chairperson of the Committee has the right to include such proposals into the agenda of a regular meeting, or convene an extraordinary meeting of the Committee.

9.7. Extraordinary Committee meetings are held:

- in accordance with a notification sent by the Corporate Secretary of the Company about the meeting of the Board of Directors, the agenda of which includes an issue (issues) within the competence of the Committee as stipulated by the present Regulation;
- on the initiative of the Chairperson of the Committee.

9.8. A request for the convening of a Committee meeting, which is made by the Chairperson of the Committee shall be sent in written form or by e-mail to the Committee's members not later than 3 (three) working days before the meeting, and shall contain the wording of an issue, reasons for the necessity to consider the issue at the meeting, a draft of the Committee's decision, as well as supplementary materials and information.

A copy of the request for the convening of the Committee meeting shall be sent to the Corporate Secretary with all the appendices.

9.9. Within 1 (one) working day after the request for the convening of an extraordinary meeting was made, the Chairperson of the Committee makes the decision on the holding of the extraordinary meeting of the Committee, sets the date, time and place of the Committee meeting (the deadline date and time for receipt of ballots in case of absentee voting), or makes the decision on refusal to convene the extraordinary meeting of the Committee. The motivated refusal shall be sent to a person or body of the Company which (who) requires such convening, not later than on the following day after the decision on refusal was made by the Chairperson of the Committee.

9.10. The decision of the Chairperson of the Committee on refusal to convene an extraordinary meeting of the Committee can be made in the following cases:

- 1) Issue (issues) proposed for the agenda of the meetings is not within the competence of the Committee, as stipulated by the Regulation;
- 2) An agenda issue, which is mentioned in the request for the convening of an extraordinary meeting of the Committee, has already been included into the agenda of the next meeting to be convened by the decision of the Chairperson of the Committee (the decision had been made by the Chairperson before the request was received);
- 3) The form, procedure and timeframe for the making of the request for the convening of the meeting, which are set in Article 8.8 of the Regulation, have not been observed.

9.11. The Chairperson of the Committee has the right to include the issues, which are mentioned in the request for the convening of an extraordinary meeting of the Committee, into the agenda of the nearest regular meeting of the Committee.

9.12. The notification about the holding of a Committee meeting shall contain the agenda, form of the meeting, as well as the date, place and time of the meeting (the deadline date and time for receipt of ballots for voting upon the agenda issues). The notification about the holding of a meeting is issued by the Corporate Secretary and signed by the Chairperson of the Committee, or the Deputy Chairperson of the Committee (in cases stipulated by the present Regulation). The notification about the holding of a meeting shall be sent to the Committee members and persons invited to Committee meeting in praesentia, not later than 3 (three) calendar days before the date of the Committee meeting (the deadline date for receipt of ballots in case of absentee voting).

Jointly with the notification about the holding of a Committee meeting the Committee members and persons invited to the Committee meeting in praesentia receive materials (information) on the meeting agenda issues.

The materials on the agenda issues of the Committee meeting shall contain drafts of decisions on the agenda issues. The issue (preparation) of the drafts is organized by the Chairperson of the Committee. The materials on the meeting agenda issues of the Committee shall be both in Russian and English.

The persons, who are invited to the meeting of the Committee in praesentia, shall receive the materials on those agenda issues, in the discussion of which they are supposed to participate.

The notification and materials (information) about the agenda issues can be provided (sent) to the Committee members and persons invited to the meeting of the Committee in praesentia personally, by fax or e-mail.

9.13. If the issues to be discussed at an extraordinary meeting of the Committee are of high priority, the timeframe for the convening of the extraordinary meeting and dispatch of materials on the agenda issues of such meeting can be limited by the decision of the Chairperson of the Committee.

At the meeting of the Committee in praesentia (held in the form of joint presence of its members), issues not included into the agenda can be considered if agreed upon by all the present members of the Committee.

9.14. On the receipt of the notification from the Corporate Secretary about the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company, the agenda of which includes issues within the competence of the Committee as set by the present Regulation, the Chairperson of the Committee shall take all measures possible to timely hold Committee meetings for the making of recommendations (decisions) on the given agenda issues of the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company, and send such recommendations (decisions) to the Board of Directors in accordance with the approved Regulation on Convening and Holding of Meetings of Board of Directors of Company.

10. PROCEDURE OF COMMITTEE MEETINGS

10.1. Committee meetings can be held in the form of joint presence of Committee members (meeting in praesentia), or in the form of absentee voting (meeting in absentia).

10.2. The Committee meeting in praesentia is opened by the person presiding over the meeting – the Chairperson of the Committee, or his (her) deputy if the Chairperson is absent.

10.2.1. The Committee members and persons invited to the meeting take part in the Committee meeting in praesentia.

10.2.2. Meetings of the Committee may be held with the use of any means of telecommunications (including by phone, teleconference/conference call, video conference, etc.) provided that the use of such means of telecommunications permits the relevant member of the Committee to participate in the meeting directly.

10.2.3. The Corporate Secretary acts as the secretary of the Committee.

10.2.4. The Corporate Secretary ascertains the presence of the quorum for the meeting of the Committee in praesentia.

10.2.5. The Chairperson informs the attending persons about the presence of the quorum for the Committee meeting and announces the meeting agenda.

If there is no quorum, the meeting is declared not competent to act. In this case, the Chairperson makes one of the following decisions:

1) Sets the adjournment date for the meeting by consulting with the persons present at the meeting;

2) Sets the date for the repeat meeting with the same agenda;

3) Includes the issues, which were to be considered at the aborted meeting, into the agenda of the next planned Committee meeting.

10.2.6. A meeting of the Committee in praesentia is competent (has the quorum) if at least half of the elected Committee members are present at the meeting.

10.2.7. Members of the Committee which participating in the meeting by video- or telephone conference call are recognized as present. While determining the results of voting on the agenda issues of the Committee meeting in praesentia, if at least half of the Committee members are present, the written opinions of the absent Committee members shall be taken into consideration, provided these opinions have been executed and sent in accordance with the procedure set by the Article 10.2.9 of the present Regulation.

10.2.8. On the day of the meeting of the Committee in praesentia, the Corporate Secretary of the Company issues ballots in accordance with Appendix 1 to the present Regulation based on the results of discussion of the agenda issues and voting of the present members of the Committee, and sends them to the absent Committee members by courier mail, or by fax and (or) e-mail.

10.2.9. While filling in a ballot, a Committee member shall leave only one of the voting options ("for", "against", "abstained") not crossed-out against each of the voting issues. The filled-in ballot must be signed by the Committee member with indication of his/her last name and abbreviated first name(s) (initials).

The filled-in and signed ballot must be submitted by the Committee member to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in the time and manner set in the ballot.

The Committee member may email to the Corporate Secretary with attached message containing one of the possible options for a vote ("for", "against", "abstained") on each issue included in the ballot (voting by email) instead of filled and signed ballot, and the email shall allow to determine the position of the Committee member on the agenda issues. The Committee member, voted via e-mail without filling in the ballot, is considered to be a participant of voting, and his voice is taken into account when the results of the vote are summed up.

The ballot and email voting message may be executed in Russian and English depending on the choice of the Committee member.

10.2.10. Voting by ballot that was filled in with non-compliance with the requirements stipulated in the first paragraph of subparagraph 9.2.9. of the present Regulation, or by email, that does not allow to determine the Committee member's opinion on the issue put to voting, will not be taken into account during vote counting in a part of the relevant issue.

Ballot or email voting message received by the Corporate Secretary of the Company not within the timeframe set in the ballot are considered to be invalid and will not be taken into account during vote counting and determining the voting results.

10.2.11. The results of voting on the agenda issues of the Committee meeting in praesentia are drawn (tabulated) on the basis of the voting results of the present Committee members as well as the ballots filled in and signed by the Committee members, which have been received by the Corporate Secretary of the Company via email within the established timeframe. The voting results are drawn after the deadline for the receipt of the ballots.

10.3. The decision on the holding of the Committee meeting in absentia shall be made by the Chairperson of the Committee.

10.3.1. For the Committee meeting in absentia, the Committee members receive the materials (information) on the agenda issues and absentee ballots for voting on the agenda issues, which are executed in accordance with Appendix 1 to the Regulation.

10.3.2. While filling in a ballot during absentee voting, the Committee member shall leave only one of the voting options ("for", "against", "abstained") not crossed-out against each of the voting issues. The filled in ballot must be signed by the Committee member with indication of his/her last name and abbreviated first name(s) (initials).

The filled in and signed ballot must be given by the Committee member to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in the time and manner set in the ballot.

The Committee member may send an email to the Corporate Secretary containing one of the possible vote options ("for", "against", "abstained") on each issue included in the ballot (voting by email) instead of filled in and signed one, and this allows to define the position of the Committee member on agenda issues. The Committee member, voted via e-mail without filling in the ballot, is considered to be a participant of voting, and his voice is taken into account when the results of the vote are summed up.

The ballot and email voting message may be executed in Russian and English depending on the choice of the Committee member.

10.3.3. Voting by ballot filled with non-compliance with the requirements stipulated in the first passage of subparagraph 9.3.2. of the present Regulation or by email that does not allow to determine the Committee member's opinion on the issue put to voting will not be taken into account during votes counting in a part of the relevant issue.

10.3.4. The ballot or email voting message received by the Corporate Secretary of the Company not within the timeframe set in the subparagraph 9.3.2. of the present Regulation will be considered to be invalid and will not be taken into account during the determining of the quorum, necessary for making a decision by absentee ballots, votes counting and determining the voting results.

10.3.5. The Committee meeting in absentia has the quorum if more than half of the elected Committee members participate in the meeting.

10.3.6. Those members, whose ballots were received by the Corporate Secretary of the Company not later than the deadline date and time for the receipt of voting ballots, are considered to have taken part in the meeting in absentia.

10.4. Decisions at the Committee meetings are made by a simple majority of votes of the elected Committee members.

10.5. For the resolution of the meeting issues, each Committee member has one vote. One Committee member is not allowed to transfer his/her voting right to another member of the Committee or other person.

10.6. The Corporate Secretary of the Company shall draw up the minutes of the Committee meeting not later than 3 (three) working days after the meeting.

10.7. The minutes of the Committee meeting shall be signed by the chairperson of the meeting and the Corporate Secretary of the Company. The minutes shall be drawn up in two original copies. One copy shall be sent by the Corporate Secretary to the Board of Directors of the Company and supplemented with all the materials and recommendations prepared for it, within 1 (one) working day after its execution; the other copy shall be kept in the archive of the Committee. All the Committee members shall receive copies of the minutes, prepared materials and recommendations.

10.8. The chairperson and the Corporate Secretary of the Company shall be responsible for the correctness of the minutes. The Corporate Secretary is a person responsible for the storage of the minutes, ballots, materials and recommendations of the Committee.

10.9. The minutes of the Committee meeting shall contain the following information:

- 1) form of the meeting;
- 2) date, place and time of the meeting (the deadline date and time for the receipt of ballots);
- 3) list of the Committee members, who took part in the consideration of the agenda issues, indicating the form of voting (voting in person or absentee, voting by email), as well as the list of persons, who were present at the meeting in praesentia;
- 4) agenda;
- 5) proposals of the Committee members on the agenda issues;
- 6) voting issues, voting results, indicating the type of voting of each Committee member;
- 7) decisions made.

The minutes of the meeting of the Committee is signed by the Chairperson of the meeting and Secretary responsible for accurate drawing up the minutes. In case of video or audio recording of the meeting, the file containing video or audio recording of the meeting is considered to be part of the minutes of the Committee's Meeting.

10.10. If desired so by a member of the Committee, the Minutes of the Committee meeting can include the summary of his (her) opinion (special opinion) on the agenda issues of the Committee meeting and its decisions. Such an opinion is prepared by the Committee member and given to the Corporate Secretary of the Company.

11. INTERACTION WITH BODIES OF COMPANY AND OTHER PERSONS

11.1. While executing its activities, the Committee maintains efficient working relations with the management and control bodies, structural subdivisions of the Company, and other organizations and persons.

11.2. The Chairperson and Corporate Secretary shall provide well-coordinated informational and technical interaction of the Committee with the Board of Directors, executive bodies, control bodies and structural subdivisions of the Company, as well as the other Committees of the Board of Directors.

11.3. The General Director and officers of the Company, in accordance with the list approved by the decision of the Committee, shall provide the information and materials, which are necessary for Committee members to adopt decisions on the issues within the Committee's competence, if such request, signed by the Chairperson of the Committee, was made.

The abovementioned information and materials shall be provided not later than 3 (three) working days after such request was made, unless a longer timeframe is set in the request.

If incomplete or unreliable information (materials) was provided to the Committee, Committee members have the right to enquire additional information (materials).

11.4. The recommendations (conclusions), which have been prepared (worked out) by the Committee, shall be given by the Chairperson of the Committee to the Board of Directors of the Company. In parallel, the Chairperson shall also provide copies of the given recommendations (conclusions) to the General Director of the Company.

12. CONFIDENTIALITY

12.1. While fulfilling the obligations of Committee members, as well as during one year after the end of office in the Committee, those persons, who are (or used to be) members of the Committee, the Corporate Secretary and third persons involved into the activities of the Committee shall comply with the confidentiality requirements in relation to the limited-access information, which they have obtained in connection with their activities in the Committee. The definition of the information with limited access, which relates to the activities of the Company, and its composition, shall be set by the decision of the authorized management body of the Company.

12.2. All the documents related to the activities of the Committee, shall be stored at the registered address of the Company in accordance with the procedure set by the Company. The Corporate Secretary is responsible for the storage of the given documents.

13. SUPPORT OF COMMITTEE'S ACTIVITIES

13.1. For provision of the Committee's activities during the setting of the budget expenditure of the Company, a separate expenditure item is envisaged. The Committee's expenses, in particular, include remunerations and compensations paid to the Chairperson of the Committee and its members, expenses related to involvement of outside consults, and other expenses.

13.2. By the decision of the Board of Directors of the Company, Committee members may receive remunerations and compensations for the expenses related to the exercise of their powers. The size of such remunerations and compensations, payment timeframes shall be set by a separate decision of the Board of Directors of the Company.

13.3. The proposal on the size of the Committee's budget (indicating all the expenditure items), shall be prepared at a Committee meeting and sent to the Board of Directors of the Company for approval. The draft of the Committee's budget shall be supplemented by the conclusion (opinion) of the General Director of the Company about the possibility of the financing of the proposed budget to the planned extent within the framework of the conduct of the Company's economic activities in the corresponding period.
